WHEREAS, Saturday, June 21, 1975, marks the entry into the state of marital bliss of Blair S. Frank, son of Stan and Helen Frank; and Kim Stone, daughter of Harry and Beth Stone; and,

WHEREAS, Blair and his family have been of tremendous assistance to Nancy and myself in our political career and we are most grateful to them; and,

WHEREAS, Blair is currently a student at the School of Nursing, Sioux Valley Hospital, Sioux Falls, South Dakota, and Kim is a student at Augustana College, Sioux Falls, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, We are proud to have among our citizenry in South Dakota such fine young people as Blair and Kim; and,

WHEREAS, The uniting in matrimony of Blair and Kim is worthy of public recognition in the State of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that the Governor make note of this special occasion:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, June 21, 1975, as in South Dakota, and do urge their many friends to join with them in celebration of this most joyous occasion.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota in Pierre, the Capital City, this 18th day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Five

RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

Jean S. Johnson, Asst

LORNA B. HERSETH, SECRETARY OF STATE
